

In the Franklin County Municipal Court
Columbus, Ohio

Administrative Order Number: 04-2021

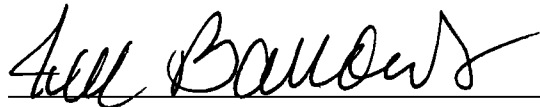

Effective: 4.1.21

Pursuant to the order of CDC Director Dr. Rochelle Walensky, the U.S. Centers for Disease and Control and Prevention on March 29, 2021, extended the expiration date of its order entitled “Temporary Halt in Residential Evictions To Prevent the Further Spread of COVID-19” (85 Fed. Reg. 55292 (September 4, 2020) to June 30, 2021. As a result, persons subject to claims for eviction may continue to seek relief under the CDC order until June 30, 2021.

Based on the above, it is ORDERED that, in any case for restitution of premises in which a stay was previously granted pursuant to the CDC order listed above, the stay is hereby extended through June 30, 2021. No motion or other action by parties to such stayed cases shall be required; extension of the stays shall be automatic as ordered herein.

After expiration of the CDC order listed above, and in any case for restitution of premises in which a stay has been granted pursuant to the CDC order, the plaintiff must file a motion with the Court requesting that the stay be lifted and stating what further proceedings are appropriate (e.g., schedule for trial, allow execution to proceed, etc.).

3.29.21
Date

Judge Ted Barrows
Administrative and Presiding Judge